

Seminars Committee Report:

Thanks to Matt Greeno and Jill Tate, our seminars committee, for their efforts to organize a number of interesting seminars for our members over the past year. The committee met during the summer to plan a number of seminars for the 2014-15 academic year and the first fall seminar took place in September.

2014 Seminars

|              | Topic                            | Presenter           |
|--------------|---|----------------------------|
| 14 January   | Creating Health Societies               | Dr. Trevor Hancock         |
| 20 February  | Why We Still Need Unions                | Dr. John Fryer             |
| 14 February  | Know and Love your Collective Agreement | Melissa Moroz              |
| 24 September | Divestment                              | Peter Gibb, Dr. James Rowe |

I would like to thank Jill Tate for her contribution to the seminar committee, Jill will be retiring in 2015 and has stepped down from the committee.

The seminars committee is always looking for more member involvement so if you have an interest in being involved, would like to present a seminar or have a topic that you think would be of interest to our PEA membership please contact Matt or Sheryl.

Respectfully submitted: Sheryl Karras, Seminars Committee
