Fall 2020 Map of Faculty & Instructor Resources

	Online Resources & Quickguides	Workshops	Connect with a Person
Get started teaching online	See " Decide on a Mode of Instruction " on Teach Anywhere	Online Learning and Teaching (1 week intensive) Syllabus Clinic Review and feedback with Cynthia Korpan available on request	Request a consultation the dedicated LTSI support team for your Faculty – including
Choose between technologies	See "What Technologies are Available to me " on Teach Anywhere	Available for groups or Faculties / Departments on request	hands-on support for migration to Brightspace Drop-In Help (Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays
Online content and lectures	See "Creating Online Materials & Lectures" on Teach Anywhere	Available for groups or Faculties / Departments on request	from 2-3pm)
Online assessment, grading, exams, and activities	See "Online Assessment & Activities" on Teach Anywhere	Online Exams & Assessments (1 hour live session) Also available for groups or Faculties / Departments on request LTSI Grading Series (coming soon)
Communicating with students & facilitating an online course	See " How to facilitate an online course " on Teach Anywhere	Available for groups or Faculties / Departments on request

Fall 2020 Map of Faculty & Instructor Resources

Tools	Online Resources & Quickguides	Workshops	Connect with a Person
Brightspace	See the Brightspace QuickGuide and the Get Started with Brightspace site	Introduction to Brightspace (4 day asynchronous workshop, with 2 live sessions) Convert your Syllabus to an Online Course in Brightspace (3 live sessions)	Request a consultation the dedicated LTSI support team for your Faculty – including hands-on support for migration to Brightspace
Zoom	See the Zoom QuickGuide	Teaching with Zoom (1 hour live session)	Drop-In Help (Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays
Kaltura	See the Kaltura QuickGuide	Teaching with Kaltura (1 hour live session)	from 2-3pm) (See Teach Anywhere for Zoom links)
Teams	See the Teams QuickGuide	Teaching with Teams (1 hour live session)
Crowdmark	See the Crowdmark QuickGuide	Available for groups or faculties on request

Fall 2020 Map of Student Resources

Topic	Description	Location	Connect with a Person
Your UVic Learning Technologies	These student self-paced modules will help you get started with the basics for Brightspace, Zoom and Microsoft Teams. After completing these modules, you'll be able to navigate and use these tools for your online courses and know where to get help. Intended Audience: Students	Self-paced course in Brightspace. Join in Brightspace.	Ask questions about online learning technologies or any of these resources by contacting the Computer Help Desk (helpdesk@uvic.ca). Or, visit an LTSI drop-in help session (Monday to Friday, 1 – 2
Getting to know Brightspace, Zoom and Microsoft Teams Workshops	This 60-minute synchronous session provides an introduction to Brightspace (online course hub) and Zoom (video conferencing tool). The session includes short demos, opportunities to try out Brightspace, Zoom and teams, and Q&A.	Live session hosted in Zoom. Register on learning central.	pm). Join the live meeting from Brightspace.
Student Guide to Online Learning	This self-paced orientation will help you prepare for your online course. The resources and activities in this site will help you to get comfortable with the online learning platform where your courses are housed and become familiar with common difficulties for online learning and how to solve them.	Self-paced course in Brightspace (coming soon).
Student Drop in Help (everyday)	Do you have questions? Join this drop-in to connect with a LTSI Support Team member.	Monday-Friday from 1-2pm Join the live meeting from Brightspace.
Integrity Matters	This self-paced module improves students' knowledge and understanding of academic integrity through interactive scenarios.	Self-paced course in Brightspace (coming soon).

Student Checklist	This interactive checklist directs students to	Available as a shared learning resources and prepares students to learn	object for instructors to add to online by completing practical first steps (e.g.,	their own courses.
	set up UVic Zoom).
Orientation Sessions	LTSI-TIL will present at two university wide	International Student Welcome	For questions about orientation
	student orientations:	Week	activities and registration,
	 "Getting Started with Online Learning 		contact: orientation@uvic.ca
	Technologies" at International	New Student Welcome
	Student Welcome Week
	 "Get Prepared for Online Learning" at New Student Welcome

TA supports available through the LTSI

Topic	Description	Location	Connect with a Person
Doing TA Work	This is an excellent resource for all	Self-paced course in Brightspace.	E-mail the LTSI TA
Online – self-paced	TAs focused on supporting		Coordinator, Gerry Gourlay at asynchronous course	instructors with their online course.	Register: Learning Central	ltsitac@uvic.ca, with any TAs can take the whole course or		questions or queries related simply concentrate on the		to supports for TAs, and segments that pertain to their		professional development specific duties or instructor needs		around teaching and learning.
	for teaching online. If TAs complete		Gerry will be happy to the whole course, they receive a		schedule a one-on-one certificate of recognition.		consultation with any TA or Fall and Spring TA	The TA Conference provides TAs	Live sessions hosted in Zoom.	graduate student.
Conferences	with varied (and different from the	https://www.uvic.ca/learningandteaching/ta/pro-
	self-paced course) instruction	d/conferences/index.php related to topics and duties specific to their Faculty. The TA Conference is divided into three streams:
	Humanities and Arts, Science, and Social Science, so that TAs get the most pertinent information for their discipline. Further, International TAs have specific workshops about teaching and communication in the Canadian context.
Teaching Assistant	Most departments at UVic (27)	To view the 2020-2021 TACs, visit this page:
Consultant (TAC)	have an experienced TA in the	https://www.uvic.ca/learningandteaching/ta/pro-
Program – peer	department to mentor new TAs,	d/tacprogram/index.php mentorship support	called a Teaching Assistant within departments	Consultant (TAC). TACs offer discipline-specific workshops, teaching observations, and one-on-one support.

	1
International	International TAs (ITAs) have	Check out more information here:
Teaching Assistant	unique cultural and communication	https://www.uvic.ca/learningandteaching/ta/pro-
Cultural and	needs when first learning how to	d/certificate-programs/itacccertificate/index.php
Communication	teach in the Canadian classroom.
Certificate (ITACC) –	Through a series of sessions, ITAs
specialized support	learn about communication,
designed to meet the	culture, presentation, reflection,
needs of	and more to feel comfortable in international	their role as a TA in a Canadian teaching assistants	classroom.
(ITAs)
Workshops	TAs have ongoing access to	Please see Learning Central for the list of our workshops throughout the	professional development through	that are updated regularly.
academic year	workshops offered at LTSI. All of our workshops are free and available to all at UVic, whether currently a TA or plan to be in the future.
Certificate programs	LTSI offers a number of (non-credit)	Check out more information here:
(non-credit)	certificate programs specifically	https://www.uvic.ca/learningandteaching/ta/pro-
,	designed for TAs and graduate	d/certificate-programs/index.php students. These certificates recognize your commitment to professional development and enhancing your teaching practice.
LATHE Graduate	LTSI in conjunction with the Faculty	Check out more information here:
Certificate program	of Graduate Studies and the	https://www.uvic.ca/learningandteaching/ta/pro-
(credit; PhD	department of Educational	d/certificate-programs/lathecertificate/index.php students)	Psychology and Leadership Studies
•	offers a credit certificate that prepares PhD students to teach effectively in higher education in order to compete in the academic job market.
LTSI resources	Visit the LTSI website to find	General TA information on LTSI webiste:
available to TAs	additional resources that will	https://www.uvic.ca/learningandteaching/ta/index.php support you in your role as a TA.
	Jupport Journ Jour Tole as a 174.	I .	