

SOCI 435

Issues in Gender, Sexual and Trans Communities

Course Description

This three-hour seminar will explore trans, non-binary, and Two-Spirit lives and related social issues. Some of what we consider may include: experiences of gender variant people in other times and places; some of the challenges faced by trans, non-binary, and Two-Spirit people today in terms of access to health care and legal recognition; issues related to transition for children, youth, and adults; sexualities; challenges faced in families of origin and families created; the treatment of trans people in the media; and trans activism.

Course Materials

There will be no textbook for this course. Please consult the course syllabus for assigned readings for each week. You are required to read them BEFORE each class. Watch CourseSpaces for any changes or additions that may arise.

Teaching

This is a three-hour class once a week. You should come to class prepared for a sustained and concentrated classroom experience.

If you miss a class, contact a classmate first. If you can't find out what you need to know that way, then contact me.

Contacting Dr. Devor

The best way to contact me is via email. See Electronic Communications Policy at the end for more details.

How you will be evaluated

You will be evaluated in four ways.

1. This is a seminar class. Your participation is essential for its success. I expect you to have done all the reading before class and to come to class prepared to be an active participant in class discussions every week. You will be graded on class participation. Worth 10% of your final grade. Each week, starting in week two, you will be required to write a 500-word commentary on the assigned readings. This is a pass/fail activity. Due every Tuesday at 3:00 PM. Late assignments will not be accepted. Worth 10% of your grade. You will not be required to provide commentary on the week that you lead class (assignment # 3).
3. During the first week, you will choose three weeks from the course that interest you, and tell me your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices. I will then try to assign everyone to their 1st or 2nd choice. On your week, your group will lecture and lead a discussion for 90 minutes based on the week's topic. Each of you will be responsible for a part of the week's readings, to be determined among yourselves. In addition, you should enhance your understanding and leadership by reading beyond the assignments, using the Transgender Archives, or connecting your week's topic to current events. You will do a self-evaluation of your leadership, and the other students in the class will provide you with feedback about how you did. I will take all of your evaluations under consideration, but I will grade you myself. Worth 40% of your final grade.
4. Each of you will write a 15-page essay worth 40% of your final grade. Pick a topic from one week of the course about which you would like to know more. Develop a question about that subject and research it using reliable scholarly sources. Write your essay using proper academic format and APA style. Do not include cover pages or bibliography in your 15-page count. Due: March 27th @ 5:00 PM on CourseSpaces.

Official Grading Standards

Undergraduate Records, University of Victoria, 2012

Passing Grade	Grade Point Value	Percentage	Description
A+	9	90 – 100	Exceptional, outstanding and excellent performance. Normally achieved by a minority of students. These grades indicate a student who is self-initiating, exceeds expectation and has an insightful grasp of the subject matter.
A	8	85 – 89
A-	7	80 – 84
B+	6	77 – 79	Very good, good and solid performance. Normally achieved by the largest number of students. These grades indicate a good grasp of the subject matter or excellent grasp in one area balanced with satisfactory grasp in the other areas.
B	5	73 – 76
B-	4	70 – 72
C+	3	65 – 69	Satisfactory, or minimally satisfactory. These grades indicate a satisfactory performance and knowledge of the subject matter.
C	2	60 – 64
D	1	50 – 59	Marginal Performance. A student receiving this grade demonstrated a superficial grasp of the subject matter.
COM	Excluded Grade		Complete (pass). Used only for 0-unit courses and those credit courses designated by the Senate. Such courses are identified in the course listings.
Failing Grades	Grade Point Value	Percentage	Description
E	0	TBD	Conditional supplemental.
F	0	0-49	Unsatisfactory performance. Wrote final examination and completed course requirements; no supplemental.
N	0	0-49	Did not write examination or complete course requirements by the end of term or session; no supplemental.
N/X	Excluded Grade		Did not complete course requirements by the end of the term; no supplemental. Used only for co-op work terms and for courses designated by Senate. Such courses are identified in the course listings. The grade is EXCLUDED from the calculation of all grade point averages.
F/X	Excluded Grade		Unsatisfactory performance. Completed course requirements; no supplemental. Used only for co-op work terms and for courses designated by Senate. Such courses are identified in the course listings. The grade is EXCLUDED from the calculation of all grade point averages.

UVic Course Policies

Commitment to Inclusiveness and Diversity

The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing and protecting a positive and safe learning and working environment for all its members. The Department of Sociology is committed to inclusiveness and to a welcoming, friendly learning and working environment. We condemn sexism, ageism, racism, ethnocentrism, homophobia, transphobia, and inappropriate behaviour toward people with a disability.

Examination and Assignment Policy

As per university policy, absence is only permitted in cases of illness, accident, family affliction, or religious obligations. Missing an exam or assignment for other reasons will result in an "F." Students are responsible for providing official documentation to justify their absence, e.g. a doctor's note. In cases of justified absences, the student has the right to request a make-up exam. Please note that exams will not be rescheduled to accommodate students' personal circumstances, including travelling plans. There are no exceptions to this policy.

Grading

In accordance with Senate Regulations, grading on the curve is not permitted. The grades students receive in this course reflect their performance in relation to specified academic expectations. Students should retain a copy of all submitted assignments (in case of loss) and should retain all their marked assignments in case they wish to apply for a Review of Assigned Standings. Students have the right to view their marked examinations with their instructor, providing they apply to do so within a month of receiving their final grades. All exams remain the property of the University of Victoria.

Attendance

As per university policy, attendance to all classes is mandatory. Students who are unavoidably absent because of illness, accident or family affliction should report to the instructor as soon as possible. Absences that cannot be justified in accordance with university policies will be subject to penalty at the discretion of the instructor. If you are absent for reasons other than those specified under university policies, then it is not the responsibility of the instructor or the TA to help you catch up with missed lecture material.

Academic Integrity

The Department of Sociology fully and rigorously enforces the Senate Policy on Academic integrity. It is of utmost importance that students who do their work honestly be protected from those who do not. Because this policy is in place to ensure that students carry out and benefit from the learning activities assigned in each course, it is expected that students will cooperate in its implementation. Students caught cheating in the course will be expelled and reported to the Chair of the Department of Sociology and the Dean of Social Sciences for disciplinary action.

Sexualized Violence Prevention and Response at UVic

UVic takes sexualized violence seriously. We encourage students to learn more about how the university defines sexualized violence and its overall approach by visiting www.uvic.ca/svp. If you or someone you know has been impacted by sexualized violence and needs information, advice, and/or support please contact the sexualized violence resource office in Equity and Human Rights (EQHR). Whether or not you have been directly impacted, if you want to take part in the important prevention work taking place on campus, contact the Sexualized violence resource office, Sedgewick C119, 250.721.8021, svpcoordinator@uvic.ca.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Students must note the statement on “Plagiarism” in the UVic Calendar, and all regulations under the “Policy on Academic Integrity.” Quotes and citations must be used for any material longer than five words in succession that is not the student’s original work. See also the Libraries’ plagiarism guide <http://library.uvic.ca/instruction/cite/plagiarism.html>.

Accommodations

The University of Victoria accommodates students with disabilities who have registered with the Disability Resource Centre. The University accommodates students whose religious obligations conflict with attendance, submitting assignments, or completing scheduled tests and examinations. Please let your instructor know in advance, preferably in the first week of class, if you will require any accommodation on these grounds. As per university policy, students who plan to be absent for varsity athletics, family obligations, or other similar commitments, cannot assume they will be accommodated, and should discuss their commitments with the instructor before the drop date.

Classroom Etiquette

Distractions can easily hinder the difficult process of conveying knowledge. Please observe standard classroom etiquette. Entering the classroom after the class has started can be distracting to all of us. While occasional lateness may be unavoidable, your dedication to being on time is greatly appreciated. The use of electronic devices for anything other than note taking is also a distraction to everyone. Please turn off your phones before entering the classroom and refrain from using them during class. If there is a justifiable reason for using your phone during class (e.g., expecting an urgent call related to health or illness), please notify me ahead of time, keep the device on vibrate, and exit the room if you must receive a message.

Harassment

The Department of Sociology supports the University’s policies on harassment, and is committed to ensuring that all students, staff, and faculty are able to exercise fully their rights to participate in activities at the University without fear of harassment.

Waitlists

Waitlist offers sent by UVic’s registration system are time-limited and sent to your preferred email listed with UVic. Beginning the first day of the month in which a course starts there is a 24-hour limit to respond once a waitlist offer is sent, and failure to respond is not in itself sufficient ground for the approval of a Request for a Late Add.

Course Experience Survey (CES)

I value your feedback on this course. Towards the end of term you will have the opportunity to complete a confidential course experience survey (CES) regarding your learning experience. The survey is vital to providing feedback to me regarding the course and my teaching, as well as to help the department improve the overall program for students in the future. When it is time for you to complete the survey, you will receive an email inviting you to do so. If you do not receive an email invitation, you can go directly to <http://ces.uvic.ca>. You will need to use your UVic NetLink ID to access the survey. Please be thinking about this, and especially the following three questions, during the course.

1. What strengths did your instructor demonstrate that helped you learn in this course?
2. Please provide specific suggestions as to how the instructor could have helped you learn more effectively.
3. Please provide specific suggestions as to how this course could be improved.

Specific Course Policies

Digital Etiquette

Phones etc: Please turn off sending and receiving functions of your cellphone and/or other devices before you enter the classroom. If your phone rings, or I see you texting once during class this semester, I'll ask you to turn it off. If it happens again during class this semester, we'll need to have a talk. I understand that your phones connect you with your friends and family, but the classroom should be a place apart, however briefly, from the outside world. If you have child or elder care responsibilities and cannot turn your phone off, please let me know. Please leave it face down on your desk and on vibrate. If you need to take a call or respond to a text, please leave the room to do so. You will learn more if you can concentrate on the course while you're in the classroom.

Laptops & tablets: You may use a laptop or tablet to take notes during this class, however research shows that student do better when they take notes by hand (Mueller & Oppenheimer, 2014, doi:10.1177/0956797614524581). However, in-class electronics also present temptations that many students find irresistible. Please do not use a phone, laptop, or tablet during class for anything other than taking notes. Do not check Facebook, play games, text, tweet, respond to email, etc. Such activities not only distract you (meaning you will probably do worse in the class), they also distract other students sitting near you (who probably will also do worse in class) (Sana, Weston & Cepeda, 2013, doi:10.1016/j.compedu.2012.10.003). If you often seem distracted by what's on your screen, we'll need to talk.

Late Assignments

If you have a documented illness, accident, or family affliction, please report it to me as soon as possible, and I will accommodate your needs. In all other cases, there will be a 10% penalty per day (including weekends) before I grade your paper. If you feel you have exceptional circumstances, please contact me.

Communications Policy

The best way to communicate with me is via email. If you want me to know that your email is not spam, you should start every subject line with "SOCI 435" followed by a subject that says what that email is about. If you forget to do this, we might delete it as spam.

Email should open with a salutation (e.g., Dear Dr. Devor)

Body of the Message should explain in detail what you want.

Use full sentences and good grammar. Spell check.

Close with your full name and Student number.

I will usually answer emails within 48 hours Monday to Friday. Do not expect an answer on the weekends. If you send an email late on Friday, you may not hear back until late on Tuesday. Plan ahead! If your issue is truly an emergency (not just lack of planning or attention on your part), put "SOCI 435 Emergency" in the subject line. I'll answer as quickly as I can. Please do not abuse this option.
