

UVic Science students

What do you wish you had known on your 1st day in UVic Science?

Make a short video giving advice to new students on finding success and inspiration in Science.

A selection of the entries will be played at this year's Science's Student Orientation. We'll also be hosting a viewing party with eligible videos in September. And there are cash prizes!

Submissions should be 1 minute or less and filmed in landscape.

