

The Orton-Gillingham Approach Teacher Training Course

Stephanie Sadownik

has completed 70 coursework hours of the Orton-Gillingham Approach Associate Level Training Course given at the Fraser Academy in Vancouver, Canada, on November 2-4, 16-18, and November 30 – December 2, 2018. This course meets the requirements of the Academy of Orton-Gillingham Practitioner and Educators' Associate Level curriculum. It does not include the practicum, which is required to apply for membership in the Academy and to correctly implement the Orton-Gillingham Approach.*

Karen Leopold

Karen K. Leopold, MS Ed
Accredited Training Fellow/AOGPE
Supervising Fellow Fraser Academy
2294 West 10th Ave, Vancouver, BC, V6K 2H8
kleopold@fraseracademy.ca

Academy of Orton-Gillingham
Practitioners and Educators

*This does not qualify the participant to say s/he is "trained" or "certified" in the Orton-Gillingham Approach, but rather has "taken coursework" in the Orton-Gillingham Approach