NOTICE TO GARNISHEE

If you do not pay into court at once the amount of your indebtedness to the defendant or judgment debtor, or the amount limited by the above attaching order, or if you do not dispute your liability, an order may be made against you for the payment of the full amount with costs.

If you dispute your liability you should at once file a dispute note, and the registrar will then send you notice of the day on which you are to appear in court.

"Owing, payable or accruing due" means owing, payable or accruing due at the time this order was served on you but, in the case of wages or salary, includes wages or salary that will, in the ordinary course of employment, become due and payable within 7 days after the day on which the affidavit first above mentioned was sworn.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

Section 27 of the Court Order Enforcement Act makes it an offence to dismiss or demote an employee or terminate a contract of employment of an employee merely because of the service of a garnishing order on the employer issued under this Act.

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR

To prevent further garnishment proceedings you may apply to the registrar or the court and, if considered just in all the circumstances, an order may be made releasing all or part of this garnishment and providing for payment of the judgement against you by instalments.
